

Scott Brown is principal consultant for Pro Security Advisors, LLC an independent consulting firm offering a holistic approach in evaluating the client's current level of security. He has over 25 years of security-related experience and since 2002 has been certified in Security Management, holding the coveted designation of Certified Protection Professional (CPP). Mr. Brown earned his Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice from Elmira College and received his Masters Degree in Public Administration from Marist College. He has conducted numerous security surveys and vulnerability assessments for schools, businesses, multi-tenant buildings and residential homes. Mr. Brown has provided on-site employee security awareness training and Workplace Violence Prevention, guiding many organizations in the facilitation of policy and procedural changes. During 2006 Mr. Brown traveled to Trinidad in the British West Indies where he conducted a Security Risk Management Workshop for executives and managers from various energy, transportation, and entertainment companies. Training included Security Risk Analysis, Kidnap and Ransom Contingency Planning and Emergency Response Planning.

Mr. Brown is also a Captain with the New York State Police, currently assigned to Troop K in the Hudson Valley. His 28 year law enforcement career includes 10 years of tactical experience with the Mobile response Team (MRT), six during which he was the MRT Commander. Mr. Brown was also assigned as a Lieutenant with the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Internal Affairs Bureau. During the 1980's Mr. Brown was assigned as a Road Trooper as well as a Scuba Diver, MRT Operator and Defensive Tactics Instructor.